FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
Alexandria Division

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)
v.	)
	)	Case No. 1:19-cr-362-LO
BRIAN CARPENTER,	)
Defendant.	)

MOTION TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

COMES NOW counsel for Defendant, BRIAN CARPENTER, and requests the Court modify his release conditions to permit him to travel within the United States, with prior notification to Pretrial Services.

On December 13, 2019, Mr. Carpenter appeared, without counsel, before Magistrate Judge Buchanan for his initial appearance. He was advised of his rights, the charges and potential penalties. He advised the Court that he had counsel, who could not appear on that date. In accordance with a prior agreement with undersigned counsel, the United States did not seek detention. Mr. Carpenter was released with conditions. He surrendered his passport and no restrictions on his travel were ordered. See the Minute Entry for the proceedings [Doc. 9, Exhibit 1.]

An Order setting conditions of release was signed by Judge Buchanan and entered on the docket. [Doc. 10, Exhibit 2]. The specific conditions of release were handwritten on the release form in blue ink. The release form also contained a preprinted condition relating to travel restrictions, said restriction not being entered by the Court. [Doc. 10, Exhibit 2].

At the request of the defense, the parties agreed to modify conditions of release so that Mr. Carpenter could have email contact with a potential witness in the case, in order to maintain his business enterprise.

In order to effect the consent conditions of release, undersigned counsel prepared proposed consent conditions of release, but mistakenly imposed travel restrictions which had not been imposed by Judge Buchanan. [Docs. 13 and 17]. This Court endorsed the Order Setting Conditions of Release on January 17, 2020. [Doc. 17, Exhibit 3].

U.S. Pretrial Services advised Mr. Carpenter that as a result of the revised consent conditions of release, he could no longer travel without prior approval.

The Defendant asks the Court to recognize the error made by undersigned counsel and modify his conditions of release as originally intended by Judge Buchanan.

Respectfully submitted,

BRIAN CARPENTER
By Counsel
